KSI Auto Parts Joins CAR Coalition

WASHINGTON, D.C. (June 14, 2021) – The CAR Coalition, a growing group of independent automotive parts, management and repair companies, associations, and insurers committed to preserving consumer choice and affordable vehicle repair, is welcoming KSI Auto Parts as its newest member. Based in New Jersey, KSI has been an industry leader for quality replacement auto body parts for over thirty years.

“The CAR Coalition is proud to welcome KSI Auto Parts to the team,” Justin Rzepka, CAR Coalition Executive Director, said. “Our membership continues to expand as we fight for consumer choice in the post-collision repair process.”

“KSI Auto Parts is excited to be a part of the CAR Coalition,” Chris Patti, KSI’s Chief Executive Officer, said. “As an industry leader in the replacement auto body parts market, our company is proud to give consumers more options when they need to repair their vehicles. We look forward to joining other CAR Coalition members to advocate for consumers in this important industry.”

Established in 1984, KSI Auto Parts has expanded its territory to service 24 locations in 16 states and continues to grow. KSI Auto Parts is a proud member of many distinguished industry associations, including Auto Body Parts Association (ABPA), Certified Automotive Parts Association (CAPA), Quality Parts Coalition (QPC), and many other local associations that are dedicated to excellence in the industry.
